Etifor S.r.l Benefit Corporation

Dear Sir/Madam,

It is with great pleasure that we gratefully accept ETIFOR's support and hereby grant one year sponsor status with the Global Sustainable Tourism Council (GSTC). We deeply appreciate your continued commitment to sustainable tourism and trust in GSTC.

The GSTC, as the managers of the GSTC Criteria, the leading global standards for sustainable tourism, is spearheading the effort to promote sustainability as a common goal for all tourism industry stakeholders. Our global community represents sustainability leaders from across the industry from UN agencies to tour operators and travel agencies, from national tourism boards to international hospitality brands all committed to sustainable development solutions.

By supporting the GSTC's activities, you are playing a critical role in advancing our mission of promoting sustainable tourism principles and practices around the globe, helping protect the world's natural and cultural resources while ensuring that tourism meets its potential as a tool for sustainable development.

Thank you for your support and participation. We're excited to have ETIFOR on board with your vigorous commitment to sustainability and look forward to working with you more through the year to come.

Sincerely,

Randy Durband
Chief Executive Officer, GSTC
